Vacancy Network Administrator

About DP World:

Trade powers economies, improving lives globally. With over 106,500 employees across 73 countries, DP World is driving trade towards a seamless future supply chain. Integrating physical infrastructure with technology, we create solutions and minimize disruptions from factory floor to customer door, to change what's possible for everyone.

Our IT department, in our business unit in Paramaribo, is looking to add a motivated team member as Network Administrator.

About this Network Administrator

The Network Administrator will report to the Senior manager IT and the main scope of responsibilities involves:

- Installation, configuration of required software, and,
- Maintenance of all hardware and software components.
- Both in the local IT infrastructure (LAN) as well as cloud-based services.

Are you:

- Used to working in collaboration with others.
- Excellent in planning and preparing.
- Focused on finding solutions!

And do you have:

- Qualification in Information Systems or equivalent at minimum bachelor's level.
- Large scale organizational experience.
- Minimum 5 years' experience in coordinating a full range of Network Administration.
- Excellent communication skills, English, and Dutch, spoken and written.
- Advanced developed interpersonal skills – influence, negotiation, and communication.
- Proficient in MS Office programs and internet use.
- Extensive knowledge of network and information security.
- Certifications: CCNA, MCSA, Information Security. These are a plus.

The Network Administrator will:

- Align all components within the IT infrastructure such as fiber connection, firewall, switches, VMs, APs, PBX, VPN and clients).
- Install and configure hardware and software systems at the Business Unit.
- Registers and monitors all IT assets with asset management tool.

- Proactively coordinates Information Security activities like network tests and risk controls.
- Independently processes access and intrusion prevention or detection system, as well as update the firmware of firewall, switches, access points and PBX.
- Monitors incoming and outgoing network connections by checking for any potential threats, responding against malicious software attacks, and executing associated cleanup processes.
- Manages and monitors alerts of critical security devices, media access control and bandwidth, LAN and WAN from ISPs (Internet Service Provider).
- Manages the network platform including Core's switches, access and routers, firewalls, to ensure access to the internal network.
- Maintains network and security infrastructure in accordance with global DP World standards and corporate policies.
- Coordinates projects related to network infrastructure and security both internally and with external suppliers.

Is this vacancy the opportunity you are looking for?

Do share your professional story with us via peopledepartmentpar@dpworld.com before September 16th 2024.